20:00 Joey The Lips: Rally For Ali Benefit Gig

Where: The Watermark Erme Court, Leonards Rd, Ivybridge PL21 0SZ, UK

Description:

Joey The Lips return to The Watermark to play a one-off benefit gig to raise much needed funds for friend of the band Ali Wheatland. Having spent her career giving hope back to others, Ali is now battling stage4 cervical cancer and heartbreakingly the standard treatment lines through the NHS are no longer working.

Monies raised on the night will help Ali to fund private treatments in the UK and potentially abroad.

Support a great cause and join Joey the Lips for a hi-energy night of soul, funk, blues & motown. We guarantee you won't be able to standstill!

19:30 The Tamaritans Theatre Company present Low Pay, Don't Pay by Dario Fo

Description:

Following the outrageous rise in energy and food costs the ordinary everyday folk in this play suddenly decide enough is enough. The first few lines set the scene; working women have rebelled against the rising cost of living by shop-lifting en masse in the local supermarket. A mini revolt undertaken not by rampant hooligans or criminal gangs but by 'normal law abiding folk'. They simply walk out after looting the shelves refusing to pay.

The fast moving farce portrays their futile efforts to conceal their ill-gotten gains first from their husbands and then from the police. The women's increasingly frantic efforts to cover up lead to trouble for their confused husbands, and as so often with Dario Fo, contact with blundering police officers.

Of course pilfering from high street shops and supermarkets is no laughing matter and a growing menace. Fortunately the Nobel winning writer saw humour and farce in everyday struggles. He originally wrote the play in 1974 in response to the economic crisis in Italy. Sadly, 50 years on in the UK, this play feels just as relevant as ever. We all need a belly laugh right now and this play by Dario Fo is really very funny. Just the tonic. Steve Baker who directed the acclaimed Accidental Death of an Anarchist last year says "The script is lively, never dull, pacy and funny. The denouement involves an undertaker, a coffin, a potentially dead policeman and the opening and closing of several doors. The ridiculous farce detracts from the very real pain of working people struggling to heat their homes, feed their families and pay their mortgages."

There are some strong female roles. Antonia and Maggie display a wicked sense of humour. They have had enough of poor Government and are liberated when causing havoc. They are conscious of their own catholic upbringing but nonetheless they delight in fooling their more straitlaced husbands. And getting one over on the authorities.

The 2 lead male characters would give up anything rather than their working class pride or male honour. But the play does not take the easy option of depicting working class stereotypes. Dario Fo expertly captures the plight of those unwittingly caught out by the low wage economy amid shameless profiteering. Eat or heat was a very real tragedy for struggling families. Despite the belly laughs, this play subtly encourages you to question what you would do if you couldn't afford what you needed. For more information and to book please go to www.ivybridgewatermark.co.uk or call 01752 892220.

19:00 National Theatre Live: The Motive and the Cue [15 TBC]

Where: The Watermark Erme Court, Leonards Rd, Ivybridge PL21 0SZ, UK

Description:

The Motive and the Cue a new play by Jack Thorne directed by Sam Mendes. Sam Mendes (The Lehman Trilogy) directs Mark Gatiss as John Gielgud and Johnny Flynn as Richard Burton in this fierce and funny new play. 1964: Richard Burton, newly married to Elizabeth Taylor, is to play the title role in an experimental new Broadway production of Hamlet under John Gielgud's exacting direction. But as rehearsals progress, two ages of theatre collide and the collaboration between actor and director soon threatens to unravel. Written by Jack Thorne (Harry Potter and the Cursed Child) and designed by Es Devlin (The Crucible), the Evening Standard award-winning best new play was filmed live during a sold-out run at the National Theatre. 10:30 Wicked Little Letters [15]

Where: The Watermark Erme Court, Leonards Rd, Ivybridge PL21 0SZ, UK

Description:

Wicked Little Letters is a 2023 British black comedy mystery film directed by Thea Sharrock and written by Jonny Sweet. The film stars Olivia Colman and Jessie Buckley in the lead roles, along with Anjana Vasani, Joanna Scanlan, Gemma Jones, Malachi Kirby, Lolly Adefope, Eileen Atkins and Timothy Spall in supporting roles.

Based on a true scandal that stunned 1920s England, the story centres on neighbours Edith Swan and Rose Gooding in the seaside town of Littlehampton. One day, a series of obscene letters begin to target Edith and others, with suspicion falling upon Rose. As the outrageous letters continue to escalate, Rose risks losing both her freedom and custody of her daughter. Police Officer Gladys Moss is determined to find the real culprit, and along with a group of other women, seeks to solve this perplexing mystery.

PLEASE NOTE: this film (including this trailer) contains very strong language, strong sex references and controlling behaviour

19:30 Alfie Moore: A Face for Radio [14+]

Where: The Watermark Erme Court, Leonards Rd, Ivybridge PL21 0SZ, UK

Description:

Somewhere in a parallel universe little Alfie's natural comedic performance skills were recognised by his doting parents who encouraged and developed his blossoming talent.

After several years as a stage school brat Alfie's angelic face was launched on stage and screen. And the rest is history. Meanwhile, in this universe Alfie Moore was told to stop messing about in class before being 'encouraged' into the grinding, grimy world of an apprenticeship in the Sheffield steelworks. When recession hit he traded steel for copper by joining Humberside Police.

In his 40s the two universes collided when Alfie made a bid for showbiz success – but unfortunately 30 years of shift-work and being punched in the face quite a lot, had left him with 'a face for radio'. A face not so much 'lived in' as inhabited by a settlement of squatters with little regard to property maintenance and repair.

This is the true story of 'Fair Cop' Alfie's big plan to transition from the BBC radio waves to TV star. Could it be done? Or had Father Time decided that his time had passed? "...offbeat, revealing and very funny" Daily Mail "...thoroughly engaging, endlessly funny. His charisma shines through as bright and colourful as a twirling blue light. Mature Times

19:15 The Royal Opera: Madama Butterfly

Where: The Watermark Erme Court, Leonards Rd, Ivybridge PL21 0SZ, UK

Description:

When the young geisha, Cio-Cio-San, marries American Naval Officer Pinkerton, she believes she is entering a real, binding marriage for life. Forsaking her religion and community, she learns all too late that for Pinkerton, their marriage is merely an illusion – with tragic consequences. With a score that includes Butterfly's aria, 'Un bel dì, vedremo' ('One fine day') and the Humming Chorus, Giacomo Puccini's opera is entrancing and ultimately heart-breaking.

Moshe Leiser and Patrice Caurier's exquisite production takes inspiration from 19th-century

European images of Japan. Asmik Grigorian performs the role of Cio-Cio-San, with Kevin John Edusei conducting.
